RUFF'S MANOR DOG SALON

137 COMMACK ROAD COMMACK

By Iris Wiener

We all need a new look now and then and we know how good it feels to get pampered at the salon as we go for that rush of a fresh new appearance. Now Rover can join in the fun! Never shy creatures, dogs can get a special look by visiting Ruff's Manor Dog Salon in Commack. Four-legged and two-legged creatures alike will enjoy the services this creative dog grooming shop has to offer.

Ida Kevshgenian and Debbie Bouderra have been grooming for over twenty years, both in Commack and Huntington Station. Their passion for this line of work grew out of their enjoyment for dog showing. Their Commack location celebrated its grand re-opening after grooming in Huntington for the past six years. "We originally groomed in Commack and are glad to see many of our old clients return," say the enthusiastic owners.

Ruff's Manor Dog Salon goes beyond the pampering of the pet. Hand stripping is offered for Terrier dogs, and Ida and Debbie are looking to expand their business with more dog-related and boutique items. Customers are also taught how to brush and maintain their dogs.

Product and customer service are very important aspects to the successful operation of Ruff's Manor Dog Salon, and Ida and Debbie are happy with the policy they abide by at all times. "We always try to give the customers what they ask," they say, "but we are truthful with them when they might not be able to give them what they want." Amongst everything else, the knowledgeable owners can also help with dog health issues. They learned a lot when they were showing various dogs that went on to win Best in Show awards. They even took some specialty wins with their Westies. They're very proud graduates of Dog Grooming School.

Dogs are always happy when in the care of the groomers at Ruff's Manor Dog Salon. "We truly like what we do. The dogs sense our feelings and they come in happy and leave happy." Customers (furry and not furry) are seen leaving the shop with smiles on their faces. Ruff's Manor Dog Salon is certain to bring out the best in Sparky and Fluffy.

You may 'paws' between 10am and 5pm, Monday through Saturday, give the salon a call with any questions at 631-499-2646.
